

ALDERSHOT COMMUNITY HONOUR ROLL

The Aldershot Community Honour Roll began in 2008 with the 50th anniversary of Aldershot becoming part of the City of Burlington. The aim is to celebrate Aldershot's history through the stories of its residents. Those honoured have demonstrated leadership, vision and creativity in their contribution to or beyond Aldershot.

Honourees have recently included people whose varied talents and interests have greatly enhanced life in our community. We recognized our own champion for Pollution Control. Roberta MacGregor started the first recycling facility in Aldershot in 1971. Mike Virgin shared his love of the outdoors and sports with the children of Aldershot. He coached BLOMHA hockey for 15 years and was a Scout leader for 34 years. Joseph DeLuca, the founder of Aldershot landscape Contractors, was honoured for both his charitable work and his business accomplishments. It is thanks to the work of his legacy foundation that we enjoy the Aldershot Escarpment Garden at the Royal Botanical Gardens. Finally, Shelley Rottenberg is an outstanding example of the youth in Aldershot. She was recognized for her work as a counsellor at the RBG as well as her volunteer work with McMaster Children's Hospital, the Wesley Urban Ministries and her school.

We need your support to help make this important event possible. Your family may have a long history in Aldershot, or you may be a new resident who recognizes the special qualities of this community. You may be one of the numerous residents who both live and work in Aldershot. Whichever descriptor fits your family, you are valued FAMILIES OF ALDERSHOT and that is why we are turning to you for help. This is an award that has been initiated, maintained and sponsored by people in Aldershot. You will be helping our community recognize outstanding individuals who have made Aldershot a strong community within Burlington. The Honourees are celebrated at an annual reception.

This year's honourees will be presented at the 9th Annual Cocktail Reception
Geraldo's at LaSalle
Wednesday, May 25, 2016 7-9 p.m.
