

Aldershot Community Honour Roll

2013

Ron Angus

Ten times World Master Judo Champion.

Senior National Judo Champion for 23 consecutive years.

Highly regarded as an Olympian Judo coach.

With wife Tracy founded “Active Aldershot” promoting health and wellness through physical activity for all ages.

Lead the effort to promote the True Sport Community Foundation in Burlington.

Created and build an Aldershot recreation centre to house summer camps, after school programs and a unique “Active for Life” program for seniors.

Aldershot Community Honour Roll

2013

Carole Ward

Founding member of Halton Oral Health Outreach (HOHO) assisting and educating seniors on the importance of proper oral health care.

Chair of Halton's Elder Service Advisory Committee providing information to improve the quality of life for seniors.

Initiated "Supported at Home Burlington" a committee that works toward supportive housing and care for seniors.

Champion of "Understanding the Options" a publication and tool to increase awareness of housing needs for seniors.

Chair Halton Regional Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Founding Member of the Aldershot Community Honour Roll.

Recipient of numerous awards including Burlington's Community Service Award.

Aldershot Community Honour Roll 2013 Jack van der Laan

Founder of the Canada Netherlands Friendship Association.

Spearheaded the effort to twin Burlington and Apeldoorn.

Organized annual celebrations commemorating the Canadian liberation of the Netherlands during the second world war and the ongoing friendship between the two countries.

Instrumental in attracting various groups from the Netherlands to Aldershot, such as choirs, performing arts groups, sports teams, business and foreign trade representatives.

Successful entrepreneur and businessman.